

Inner West Council Indigenous Business of the Year

INNER WEST

Inner West Council's Indigenous Business of the Year award seeks to recognise the efforts of First Nations' businesses in the Inner West Council area.

This award represents a unique opportunity for Indigenous businesses to be recognised by their peers and the community at large for the work and services they provide in the community.

For the purpose of this award an Indigenous business is defined as:

A business that is wholly or partly owned by a First Nation/s person.

All entries to be sent to:

Inner West Council
Billy Cotsis
PO BOX 14
Petersham NSW 2049

ELIGIBILITY

The Award is open to any Indigenous business as defined previously, located in the Inner West local government area, on traditional Eora lands, and operating at the time of closure for nominations

WINNERS

Winners will be announced at the 2021 Inner West Local Business Awards Presentation Evening on Monday 18th October at Le Montage..

JUDGING

Judges will be looking for examples of outstanding Indigenous businesses within the LGA.

PRESENTED BY

INNER WEST

For further information:

Email: billy.cotsis@innerwest.nsw.gov.au

Phone: 9392 5137

ENTRIES CLOSE: Monday 26th July

Inner West Council Indigenous Business of the Year

Your contact details:

Name:
Address:
Suburb: Postcode:
Telephone: Mobile:
Email:

Details of the business or organisation nominating for the Inner West Indigenous Business of the Year Award.

Business Name:
Business Address:
Email: Telephone:

1. Tell us about your business, what type of business is it? Do you employ other First Nations people at your business, as suppliers or contractors?

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

2. Describe a major achievement by your business in the last 12 months?

.....
.....
.....
.....

3. Does your business have a positive socio-economic benefit/impact for Indigenous people?

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....